

PLEIN AIRE PAINTING IN ELYSIAN PARK

with Katie Bachler

En Plein aire painting literally means painting in the open air. Here in LA there is much sublime nature to enjoy with brush and paper. We will find a spot near the garden in Elysian Park and engage in the social act of re-presenting what we see-- expect magnificent views of the San Gabriel mountains, snow on Mount Baldy and the riparian verdence of the LA river. Materials will be provided.
